Ex-Con To Stand Trial

Eight Killings Charged to Joplin Outlaw

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 17—
(P)—William E. Cook, accused kidnap and suspected slayer of eight persons will be returned to Oklahoma from here to be prosecuted on federal kidnaping
charges.

The Department of Justice in Washington announced last night
that Cook, 23-year-old ex-convict captured in Mexico after a two-week international manhunt, will be tried on a charge of kidnaping
the Carl Mosser family at Atwood, Ill.

The federal charge, known as the Lindbergh Law, carries a possible death penalty.

U. S. Attorney Ernest Tolin, at Los Angeles, said he had agreed to the transfer of custody and was merely awaiting the warrant for Cook's return to Oklahoma.

Cook also has been sought by police in Joplin, Mo., where the five bodies of the Mosser family
were recovered from a mine shaft.
The Mossers, all of whom had been shot, are suspected victims of Cook.

He also has been charged in California with the murder Jan. 6
of Seattle salesman Robert Dewey.
A California sheriff's deputy said
Cook also had talked of slaying
two other persons in Oklahoma.
The deputy said he had been kidnaped by Cook but was released unharmed.

Warmer Days Are Predicted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—(P)—
The weather bureau predicted today that most of the country will enjoy warmer - than - seasonal weather during the next 30 days.

It said:
"The weather bureau's 30-day
outlook for the period from mid January to mid February indicates that temperatures will average above seasonal normals over
most of the country with greatest departures occurring in the gulf states and lower Mississippi Valley. In the northwest temperatures are expected to average not far from seasonal normals.

"Precipitation is expected to equal or exceed normal values
over the mid-west, the northeast
and west of the continental divide
but subnormal amounts are predicted for the southwest and the western plains."

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

That robin which has braved the unusual winter to date, and has been reported a number of times
within the city during the last two months, is still here.

A. W. Duff, who for years has maintained a feeding station for birds in the back yard of his North North Street home, Tuesday
saw the robin—the only one he has seen this winter. It was feeding at the station and was apparently in excellent condition.

In a recent bird count in Ohio,
a surprisingly large number of migratory birds were counted in
the largest poll of birds even taken during the winter months.

Robins were numerous. Some of the other birds which are not supposed to winter here were also unusually abundant.

The hard winter to date apparently has not been too devastating to bird life, although the snow
in November was a record breaking one and remained on the ground for sometime.

18-year-old Draft Still Unsettled

Universal Military Training
Urged by Educator -- Controls
Nearer While Prices Climb

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—(P)—
An educational leader bucked
Senate opposition today by backing the administration request to draft 18-year-olds into the fighting forces without restrictions.

Karl T. Compton, chairman of the corporation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology,
urged Congress to adopt the universal military service and training program immediately.

He further urged some kind of service for those unable to meet physical and mental qualifications

for military duty, in testimony before the Senate armed service
preparedness subcommittee.

"If you cannot show me a better
plan, then either support the 18-
year-old plan or else come out frankly and say that you really are opposing the creation and training of a 3 to 3½ million armed forces," Compton said.

Chairman Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) of the preparedness group told Compton that defense officials had conceded "it is unnecessary to take a single 18 year old to reach an armed force of three or three and a half million."

Johnson said the present draft act pool of men from 19 through 25 years could supply all the additional men needed to build forces up to 3,460,000 by June 30.

"The manpower program is going to confront us for 25 years," Sen. Morse (R-Ore) said. "It may be that long before we can feel safe. We must gear our economy,
manpower and military plans for a long pull."

A Senate decision on the troops-
to-Europe issue appeared likely today to be delayed until Gen.
Dwight D. Eisenhower reports to Congress on his survey of North Atlantic defenses.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of
the Senate foreign relations committee told reporters any resolution affirming the policy of sending manpower aid to western Europe will be held up until the committee can hear Eisenhower.

Eisenhower is expected to return late this month.

The Senate's argument over the European troop issue was no more heated than criticism directed at the State Department -- by American support of a United Nations
cease-fire plan for Korea.

Premier Rene Pleven of France
will come to Washington Jan. 29
for a two-day policy conference
with President Truman.

Announcing this today, the State Department said Pleven
suggested the conference and Mr.
Truman welcomed him to confer
on "important questions of mutual interest."

Price Controls Near

Spurred by the highest food prices in American history, the government today moved significantly nearer general controls
over prices and wages.

A nationwide price-wage freeze
is widely expected whenever the gathers a staff able to handle such Economic Stabilization Agency
an order without being snowed
under. The ESA is making progress toward getting such a staff.

ESA employees rose to 450, an increase of 100 in the last ten days.

Work of opening field offices
was rushed. ESA officials said the 13 regional offices will be "in business" by Feb. 1, some of them
earlier.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics
announced the retail prices of 50 foods in eight large cities have hit a new peak. On Jan. 2, the average of those prices stood at 218.9 percent of the 1935-1939 average. During the two weeks, prior to Jan. 2, the price level has surpassed the former high of 216.8
on July 15, 1948.

Non-stop Return Flight
Planned for Bombers

LAKENHEATH, England, Jan.
17—(P)—Six of America's biggest bombers—the B-36 capable of carrying the atom bomb 10,000 miles
—will attempt to fly nonstop back to their base in Texas.

The ten-engined giants touched down at this royal air force base yesterday, accompanied by three DC 124's, the second biggest cargo carrier of the U. S. Air Force.

Another Murder Plot Rumor Bared

MEDINA, Jan. 17—(P)—Max
Amerman's murder trial appeared heading for a fast verdict today
unless the 27-year-old farmer decides to take the stand himself.

If Amerman does not testify,
only two additional character witnesses remain to complete the proceedings before three judges.

By his own admission, Amerman
plotted the murder of Harold Mast, 23, so that he could woo Mast's unfaithful wife, Randi, 24. His pal, Gerald Killinger, 18, pulled the trigger and is scheduled to die in the electric chair.

The sullen Amerman's own attorney injected a surprise development on the first day of the trial, yesterday. He produced a witness who told of a "rumored" affair
Amerman had with a second Medina woman and of an unsuccessful attempt on her husband's life.

Nelson Gayer, a neighbor of Amerman and longtime acquaintance, told of this reported second affair. He did not identify the woman nor did he say who fired

the shot.

Gayer said only that he had heard that a shot was fired at
the husband through a chicken house window. The light in the poultry house was on, he said,
calling this a "rumor" about the folks across the road.

The state already has rested its case, save for closing arguments.

Amerman is trying only to get as easy a penalty as possible. He already has pleaded guilty to a blanket charge of homicide.

Europe Needs To Be Backed Up, Panel Says

International Group
Of Students Speaks
To Audiences Here

Two members of an international panel which appeared here Tuesday expressed the belief that the United States should shore
up the European defenses against the flood of Communism until countries there can rearm.

While they did not mention the Hoover plan specifically, the two panel members indicated that it would be folly for United States
to pull back its forces from the fringes of the iron curtain.

Dr. Kurt Bagner of Austria declared: "The Germans wouldn't be afraid to rearm if they were backed up."

For the Germans to undertake
to rebuild their munitions factories
and armament industries without sufficient armed divisions nearby
would be an invitation to the Russians to invade that country.

"They (the Russians) wouldn't stand by and let the Germans
build up their armies and factories
again," Bagner explained.

Ernest Cahn of Germany said
it was no wonder that countries
of Europe weren't "enthused about
the prospect of another war."

"I personally do not believe in war . . . It does not accomplish anything," Cahn stated.

Answer Many Questions

The two men were members
of an international panel of four Ohio State University students
which made four appearances in Fayette County on Tuesday. They addressed their remarks to an audience of more than 200 persons who gathered in the Washington C. H. High School auditorium Tuesday night.

Other members of the panel
were Mohamed El-Shibiny of Egypt and Onita Meinbrencis of Latvia.

European defense was only one of the many topics which the panel discussed. They answered a score of questions directed their way
by the members of the audience.

Members of the panel differed as to whether the United Nations was going to prove an effective instrument for achieving world peace.

Cahn, the German member of the panel, declared: "I'm afraid
the United Nations is on the decline in spite of all the good it was able to do."

"I am sure that if the peoples
from all the countries were really represented by the United Nations it would succeed . . . It is regarded by too many nations as a means of power," Bagner of Austria said.

Anita Meinbrencis of Latvia declared: "As long as Russia is a part of the United Nations it can't

Racketeering in Ohio Is Bared by Governor

By RALEIGH ALLSBROOK

CLEVELAND, Jan. 17—(P)— Ohio's governor, Frank J. Lausche, today launched a bitter attack
on commercial gambling in Ohio
and urged a Senate crime committee to press for further legislation "to help fight these people."

He proposed a federal ban against interstate betting wires.
The governor was the first witness to appear before the Kefauver committee as it opened a three-day session here.

A guest of the committee, he said that much nationwide crime
had local ramifications.

He said the Continental Press Service has roots in Ohio, "in my judgment."

The governor declared this service provides racing information to those who need it "to take wagers."

"The adoption of a federal law
prohibiting the transportation across state lines of slot machines
and their exhibition for play on federal property is a step in the right direction," he asserted.

"It is my belief that wire services crossing state lines and intended and clearly being a part of the mechanism connected with the promotion of wagering, should be banned by the federal government."

Lausche testified for more than an hour and said he was convinced that tolerance of commercial gambling leads to establishment of a "dynasty of racketeers whose powers with the law enforcement officials and agencies are greater than those of the citizenry itself."

He also said that apart from gambling itself, this tolerance

causes a breakdown of law and order, removes the respect of youths for courts and law enforcement agencies, and deprives
many families of needed medical and dental care.

While the governor spoke,
Arthur B. (Mickey) McBride,
founder and former owner of Continental Press, was waiting to testify. McBride, a real estate and taxi magnate of Cleveland and Miami, Fla., is the principal owner of the Cleveland Browns, pro

football champions. The service
now is owned by his son, Edward,
a University of Miami, Fla., law
student.

McBride was called to the stand
but was excused and given time
to obtain records asked by the committee. He was expected to go back on the stand later today.

Lausche went over for the committee his crusade which resulted in the closing of the Mounds Club

Pressure Is Eased
By Chinese after Fanatical Attacks

PEACE PLAN REJECTED

TOKYO, Thursday, Jan. 18—
"Peiping radio said today
the Chinese Communist regime
had rejected the latest United Nations Korean cease-fire proposal.

It said the UN five-point proposals for peace in Korea and other Far Eastern issues were "impossible."

The broadcast in Chinese was monitored here by the Japanese Kyodo News Agency.

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, Jan. 17—(P)—Allied
tank-infantry raiders teams held firmly today to three western Korean outposts within striking range of 120,000 Chinese Red troops.

The scouting forces are on the third day mission to test enemy
strength south of Seoul.

They ran into their toughest fight Tuesday at Suwon.

The U. S. Army Chief of Staff,
Gen. J. Lawton Collins, watched Allied tanks, troops and war-
planes rout a 1,000 man Red garrison force there.

Suwon is 17 air miles south of Seoul and closer still to the massing area of three Chinese armies
south of the Han River and the old Korean capital.

The Allied raiders swept into Suwon and with Allied war-
planes strafing the fleeing Reds—
inflicted 500 casualties in an hour-
long skirmish.

On the central front, a spokesman said Allied forces still occupied Yongwol, 30 miles southeast of Wonju.

General at Front

Collins saw the Suwon fight on his tour of Korean battlefronts.
He and Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, U. S. Air Forces chief of staff, are leaving for Washington Wednesday night after their battlefield
tours and conferences here with General MacArthur.

Vandenberg told a Tokyo news conference Allied air power aimed to hit the Reds and their supply lines around the clock. The air general just back from Korea,
said day and night air raids are making it difficult for the Reds to move supplies to the front over lengthening lines of communication.

Their supply problem will get tougher as the Communists move
further south, Vandenberg said.
But he said there was no drawback: "The airplane is an inefficient weapon against the individual soldier." Communist troops can move south along mountain
trails or at widely spaced intervals
on main roads.

Visit By More Brass

Two other Washington Pentagon
generals visited the front Wednesday. They are Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell, Smith Central Intelligence Agency chief, and Maj. Gen. Alexander R. Bolling, U. S. Army intelligence head.

All four arrived in Tokyo Sunday for high-level conferences and on-the-spot views of the Korean war.

An A. P. field dispatch said
leading attack columns swept on Suwon from two directions and mowed down many of the surprised Chinese in the open. Some were caught without their guns.

"They came scurrying like rats
out of houses in all directions," a lieutenant said.

Plane Crash
Fatal to Ten

EDWALL, Wash., Jan. 17—(P)— Jagged pieces of airplane metal sticking up through snow on an eastern Washington wheat field
were the only visible evidence today that 10 persons died there.

Investigators began to question witnesses today. They are looking for the reason behind the crash
of a Northwest Airlines plane
shortly after noon yesterday.

There were seven passengers
and a crew of three aboard. Coroner Fred Campbell stood out in a raging blizzard for hours probing through the snow and late last night said four victims had been identified from personal effects.
He said fingerprints would be necessary to identify others.

Boy May Be Kidnaping Victim Or Orphan Son of Alcoholic; Two States Seeking Identity

DETROIT, Jan. 17—(P)—Michigan, Ohio and federal authorities
joined today in an effort to determine whether an eight-year-old boy is the orphan son of an alcoholic woman or the victim of a kidnaping about seven years ago.

Contradictory records concerning the boy have been found, but none establish his identity as the son of Mrs. Irene Mathews, 35, who died of chronic alcoholism a week ago and with whom he is known to have lived for several months.

Authorities could find no record
of his birth but found he had been known by several different names.
They then began to check on the possibility that he is either Paul Jevahirian, Jr., of Detroit, or Ronald Thompson, of Dayton, O.

Both Paul and Ronald were kidnaped and never heard of again Paul vanished June 3, 1943, shortly before his first birthday, along with his nurse-
maid known as Alice White.
Ronald was kidnaped from his Dayton home Oct. 7, 1944, when he was 20 months old.

Police here said they had theo-
rized for a long time that the same woman took both babies.

Detective Sgt. Albert De La Meilleure said the woman who died under the name of Irene Mathews answered the description of the woman believed to have kidnaped the Jevahirian and Thompson boys.

The boy whose identity authorities are attempting to check had been living at a rooming house
with Mrs. Mathews under the name of Jackie McKinnon. He was found at the rooming house after
Mrs. Mathews died Jan. 10.

Has Had Four Names

Police said they learned he had gone by at least four names besides McKinnon—Beamer, Mc-Veigh, Mathews and Floyd.

They found papers, but no official birth certificate, showing he was born May 7, 1942, in Chattanooga, Tenn. A certificate
from a Cleveland, O., school gives his birthplace as Steubenville, O.

A baptismal certificate from a Detroit church gives his parents as Clarence Beamer and the former Irene McVeigh.

Court records show the Beamer-
McVeigh marriage ended in divorce and the wife later married Donald Mathews, who police say
is in federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

FBI agents, De La Meilleure,
said have gone there to question
him. The detective said he didn't know the cause of Mathews' imprisonment.

Mrs. Alice Jevahirian, mother of kidnaped Paul, was to see the lad today, and detectives planned
to question Hobart Floyd and John Patheloziz, who identified
Mrs. Mathews' body at the county morgue after her death.

Staubenville, Jan. 17—(P)— Councilmen voted raises today of $20 a month to salaried city employees and 84 cents a day for those paid by the day.

39 Persons at TB Clinic Here

Two Active Cases Are Uncovered

Thirty-nine persons attended the tuberculosis clinic conducted at the county health office Tuesday afternoon.

The clinic, under the direction of Dr. Damon Wetterauer, either follows up on cases referred to it by family doctors, known contacts and former patients. In this way the clinic hopes to keep in contact with all known or potential cases. Doctor Wetterauer is in charge of the TB Sanatorium at Mt. Logan.

A number of cases handled by the clinic are brought to light by mass chest X-rays, which are first referred to the family physician.

Of the 39 persons at the clinic, it was found there were two cases to be found definitely active. The total number of active cases from the clinic will not be known until the reports are finished and returned to the family doctors.

Active cases of TB are sent to Mt. Logan, which is jointly owned by six counties—Fayette, Scioto, Ross, Jackson, Pike and Highland.

There are now seven patients from the county at Mt. Logan with applications for two more pending. With the two cases found in Tuesday's check, this will fill the 11-bed quota for the county.

Dr. Wetterauer reports there is work under way to enlarge the capacity of the hospital by 16 beds. At present there are 78 beds.

The clinic here is held every two months. The next one is scheduled for March 20.

Streams Receding With Cold Weather

Monday night's cold weather froze the moisture in the ground and checked Paint Creek from flooding around Washington C. H. Tuesday.

The water did overflow the banks in places, but a six-inch fall was recorded in the depth of the stream Tuesday evening and it was back in its banks by Wednesday morning.

Tuesday's weather was seasonal with a high of 33 being recorded and a low of 27. Rising temperatures are promised for Wednesday.

Pennington Bakery Head Named Officer

Morgan B. Pennington, president of the Pennington Brothers Bakery Inc., has been re-elected vice-president of the Ohio Bakers Association.

Forrest Sharpe of Cleveland was re-elected president of the group at the final meeting of the annual convention Tuesday night in Cincinnati, according to an Associated Press story.

Fred Allen of Columbus will continue in office as treasurer. Penningtons have a large bakery in Washington C. H.

Club in Geauga County, the Hungate Inn in Trumbull County and the Colony Club in Lawrence County.

He said the Colony Club had "a large scale operation in gambling" and was run by Cleveland men.

"I can't begin to describe the brazenness of local officials" when state officials began efforts to close the Colony Club, said the governor.

No help or aid was received from local officials, he declared. The governor gave the committee what he said were detailed graphs showing the layouts and equipment of the clubs his state officials had closed.

Lausche said when the Jungle Inn was raided by state liquor enforcement Chief Anthony A. Rutkowski the state highway patrol was asked to notify the Trumbull county sheriff to help in the raid. He did not mention the sheriff's name.

But he said the sheriff did not appear until several hours after the raiding party was at the club. Lausche said before the state finally forced the closing of the Pettibone Club in Geauga County he had asked repeatedly Sheriff Stuart Harland and Prosecutor Harold Bostwick try to stop the club.

Bostwick told him, he continued, "when you obtain the evidence I will" take action.

The governor added he felt local officials should take steps to produce evidence in such cases.

Some clubs show signs of attempting to open again, the governor said. He mentioned specifically the Jungle Inn.

Lausche told the committee of a $300,000 holdup of the Mounds Club several years ago and said "the astounding and shocking thing" was that the operators of the club and the sheriff of Lake County tried to "suppress" the state's investigation.

He said they wanted to keep the operators of the swank gambling casino quiet.

He continued that one of the worst attributes of gambling in Ohio is that most of the clubs are frequented by ordinary workers. "They lose money they need for food, clothing and other necessities," he declared.

"Ninety-five per cent or more of Ohio's residents want these people driven out. Just a few want them."

Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland briefly before the committee and said Cleveland, like all large cities, had some crime and vice.

"I know many leaders in commercial gambling throughout the country live in Cleveland," Burke said. "But they do not operate illegally in Cleveland."

It was sponsored by Rep. Michael J. Damas (D-Lucas), chairman of the commission which studied the problem; Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel (R-Columbiana) and Rep. Adrian B. Fink, Jr., (R-Cuyahoga).

A 10-member commission to study the state liquor monopoly and recommend desirable changes in liquor laws was proposed by Rep. Joseph X. Schwartz (R-Cincinnati).

And, Rep. Patrick J. Dunn (D-Tuscarawas) came up with his "old reliable" bill for the eighth time. It would prohibit the simultaneous employment by the state of both a husband and wife.

The Senate unanimously confirmed these appointments of Governor Lausche:

J. B. Brown, Knox County, and George W. Rapp, Cincinnati, banking advisory board.

Ben Van Gordon, Butler County, Emerson A. Mizer, Harrison County, Roy D. Pavey, Franklin County, and Frank C. Smith, Franklin County, state Board of Agriculture.

Carl H. Schwyn, Wood County, and U. S. Rep. Frazier Reams, Toledo, trustees of Bowling Green state University.

Then 10 Allied tanks took up the fight inside the city. Their guns blazed at Red hideouts for an hour.

"We knocked out their machine guns with tanks and hit their foxholes with mortars," a captain said. "Many of them never reached their foxholes—we got them while they were running to them. They threw a lot of stuff at us."

Other Scouting Forays

Other Allied scouting forces which had entered Osan, 28 air miles south of Seoul, and Kumyangjang, 25 air miles southeast of the old Korean capital, withdrew by plan at dusk Tuesday to positions just south of two towns.

A blanket censorship imposed since noon Tuesday (10 P. M., EST, Monday) prevented the location by name of corps, divisional or lesser units. A security clampdown usually means a shifting in troop positions.

Air force and navy planes pounded the enemy.

East of Seoul toward Ichon and abandoned Wonju on the central Korean front Red Korean and Chinese troops dug in. They were not rushing to attack the new Allied positions.

Instead, they kept up steady harassment of Allied supply lines with busy Guerrillas. U. S. Eighth Army headquarters has been reluctant to discuss Guerrilla activity in any specific Korean section. But an Allied corps commander said his raiders were hitting the Guerrillas wherever they were found. Seventeen were killed Monday out of a band of 200 near the east coast port of Samshok.

300 Chinese Routed

The strong western force that drove into Suwon, 17 miles south of Seoul, and Kumyangjang and Osan in the same area, routed some 300 Red Chinese Tuesday in a fire fight yesterday.

More than 100 Reds out of 300 were killed or wounded by Allied rear-guard troops who surprised the Communists hiding in the brush near Kumyangjang.

The Eighth Army communique said UN troops backed away from Suwon and set up defenses 500 yards south of the walled city. A. P. Correspondent Jim Becker, with the western force, said the Allied troops fought in the streets of Wuson before the pull-back.

Becker reported the Allies were only 100 yards outside of Kumyangjang and but a short distance outside of Osan.

Only patrol activity featured the central front.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—(AP)—This is a good time to pause for station identification. It is not yet five months since Sept. 1, when Congress passed the defense production act.

Already a big batch of government agencies -- 19 -- have been set up to carry out the terms of that law which gave the government power to control the American economy in many ways while building defenses.

To control prices and wages; ration; cut down the supply of civilian goods, like radios and refrigerators; tighten up on installment and real estate buying; get defense plants built or expanded; tell factories how much of any material they can have (called allocation); say what factory gets what material first (called priority); and still see that civilians live normally as possible.

The 19 new agencies were set up to do all those things. The 19 have various names, like agency, administration, authority, office, division branch.

Some have been set up inside departments or agencies which were long in existence before Sept. 1 and specialized in certain fields. For instance: the agriculture department, which deals in food and farming, has set up special branches within itself to deal with food and farming as they relate to defense.

(At some future time, maybe in three or four months, perhaps these scattered agencies will all be pulled together under one, top defense agency.)

But in other cases it has been necessary to set up brand new agencies, completely independent of any other government department. For example: there's no permanent part of the government for controlling prices and wages. So that had to be created, brand new, and off by itself.

All in all, though, these new agencies or divisions or whatever they happen to be called have brought a new alphabet into the government. Here are the new 19:

ODM (Office of Defense Mobilization), ODM (Office of Defense Manpower), DPA (Defense Production Administration), DPA (Defense Power Administration), and DMB, ESA, WSB, NPA, DTA, PAD, SFAD, DFA, DMA, OMA, OMF, FDB, DSCR, EPS.

Here they are explained. The first six which follow are not only new but are not part of any other government agency: ODM--Office of Defense Mobilization. Director -- Charles E. Wilson, former president of the General Electric Corporation. ODM is boss of the whole defense show. Since Wilson is boss of ODM, he's boss of the whole defense program at home.

DMB -- Defense Mobilization Board. This board, made up of some of the top men in government, doesn't run anything. Its job is to advise Wilson on the whole program.

Wilson is chairman. Other members of the board: the secretaries of Treasury (John W. Snyder), defense (George C. Marshall), commerce (Charles Sawyer), interior (Oscar Chapman), agriculture (Charles F. Brannan), labor (Maurice J. Tobin); and the chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (J. Stuart Symington); and the chairman of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System (Thomas B. McCabe).

ESA -- Economic Stabilization Agency. Boss -- Dr. Alan Valentine, an educator and former college president. This is the top agency over prices and wages. It has two branches, which follow: OPS -- Office of Price Stabilization. Director -- Michael V.

DiSalle, former mayor of Toledo, Ohio. DiSalle is supposed to be price boss--that is, decide when price ceilings are necessary and run price control. But since his OPS is part of Valentine's ESA, Valentine is DiSalle's boss -- so far.

WSB--Wage Stabilization Board. Chairman -- Cyrus S. Ching, for many years a business man and more recently head of the government's service for settling labor disputes peacefully. The board's job is to watch wages and control them, if necessary.

Ching has nine men on the board him: three representing labor, three from business, and three representing the public. Ching's WSB is under Valentine, too, but whether Valentine can block decisions made by Ching's board remains to be seen.

DPA -- Defense Production Administration. Boss -- William H. Harrison, former president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company.

DPA is under Wilson, of course, but it runs the whole industrial production program. It controls allocations and priorities and at this moment could order rationing of consumer goods. But if such rationing becomes necessary, a new agency will be set up. In short, DPA sets the whole program for producing defense items.

The following agencies, all linked in with those just given, are all new but are part of old-time agencies:

NPA -- National Production Authority. Acting boss until a permanent one is chosen -- Manly Fleischmann. NPA is part of the commerce department. It carries out DPA's orders, such as allocations and priorities.

LTA -- Defense Transport Administration. Boss -- James Knudsen. Knudsen is a member of the 11-man Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) whose regular, peacetime job is supervising transportation in this country. At the moment DTA is set up within the ICC.

The job of DTA is to see that trains and busses get the materials to keep running -- like steel for more trains and busses. In time of greater emergency it could slap controls on them.

The following five agencies are all part of the interior department: PAD -- Petroleum Administration for Defense; SFAD -- Solid Fuels Administration for Defense; DFA -- Defense Fisheries Administration; DPA -- Defense Power Administration; and DMA -- Defense Minerals Administration.

Those five were set up to tie oil, fisheries, electric power and minerals into the defense program.

The following three are in the agriculture department: OMA -- Office of Materials and Allocations; OMF -- Office of Materials and Facilities; and FDB -- Food Distribution Board.

They're supposed to see that farmers get materials, machines and fertilizers they need. In this time of food plenty FDB doesn't have much of a problem.

ODM -- Office of Defense Manpower. This is part of the labor department. Its job is to study the nation's manpower needs and help get workers for defense plants.

DSCR -- Division of Selective Credit Regulations. This is part of the Federal Reserve System. It handles government controls on installment buying and the usual real estate down payments, all intended to prevent inflation by putting a brake on spending.

EPS -- Emergency Procurement Service. This is part of the General Services Administration, a permanent agency which does the buying for government departments, a kind of general purchasing agency. But EPS particularly does the buying of strategic materials for the government, like rubber.

So much for the agencies which have come into existence since Sept. 1. There are others tied in

Board and Room

By Gene Ahern

with the defense program in one way or another.

NSRB -- The National Security Resources Board. Boss -- J. Stuart Symington. This was created several years ago to study the nation's defense needs and make plans to meet them.

But NSRB and Symington have been shoved into the background since Wilson and his ODM took over. NSRB's reason for living becomes more vague daily. Symington is now a sort of trouble-shooter for the president among the various defense agencies.

MB -- Munitions Board. Chairman -- John Small. The board has four other members. It decides what strategic materials, like rubber, the government needs and should stockpile. It orders them. But EPS, mentioned above, does the buying.

RFC -- Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Chairman -- W. E. Harbor. It has four other board members. It puts up the money for building or expanding defense plants. Its usual, long-time job has been lending money for business improvements.

HHFA -- Housing and Home Finance Agency. Boss -- Raymond Foley. While the Federal Reserve says how much a civilian must put down on a house, when he gets a bank loan, HHFA controls down payments when government loans or guarantees are involved, like a GI guarantee.

Off to one side of all this is the new Federal Civil Defense Administration (FCDA) set up to prepare this country against an enemy bombing attack.

Personal Property Tax Listing Soon

County Auditor Ulric T. Acton said Wednesday that the listing of personal property for taxation will begin February 15 and end March 31.

Auditor Acton said that all possible assistance will be given to personal property listers at his office throughout the period of listing.

Half of the tax is payable at the time property is listed. All may be paid if desired, it is stated. A great many owners each year pay the full amount of the tax at listing time.

Farm schedules will be mailed out within the next few days, Acton said.

The county auditor also calls attention to the fact that 2 of a mill World War II veteran's bonus will not apply to personal property. The tax is collected on real estate but not personal property.

Wage Law Protested

COLUMBUS, Jan. 17—(AP)—Claiming a district interest, a union yesterday asked permission to enter a court case testing Ohio's new minimum wages for minors and children employed in hotels and restaurants. Roy E. Gosnell, Circleville, O., restaurant owner, is protesting new minimums set by the state.

Huge vacuum-cleaner type machines are used on some oyster boats to bring oysters up to the surface.

A Heavy Tax Burden Facing The People

With approximately 10 percent of our taxes to be set aside for aid to foreign countries, and a sizeable slice for reservoirs and river and harbor improvements, proposed in President Truman's 71 and 1/2 billion dollar budget for the year beginning next July 1, the American people are about to get a real blow between the eyes in taxes.

Granted that more than half of the new budget is for military purposes, the cry down at Washington D. C. will continue to be for more and more taxes.

There is not much attention being given by those in control as to elimination of wasteful spending. Even the military authorities could stand some attention in this regard when it is considered that more than half of the tax money spent for military purposes goes into military administration service rather than for actual implements of war.

Almost daily in recent months the sights are being raised as possible new tax horizons and new methods of getting more money, are envisioned.

War and preparation for war usually is a good time for bureaucrats to "get in their licks" in the matter of getting more money to spend, and this year is not likely to be any exception.

The public wouldn't mind too much if there was certainty that tax money was being used to make every dollar do the job it should, but are we getting this result?

This is the question the new Congress must be patriotic enough to handle seriously, patriotically and honestly.

Congress will have a tough job locating the source of extra funds that would be needed to balance the budget. Chances are only one in hundreds that the budget will be balanced.

Proposals have been submitted to Congress—or soon will be—to increase taxes on everything that is now taxed and to inaugurate new levies. Income taxes, profits taxes and excise levies will be boosted. Everything will be subjected to federal taxation except food and medicine, and those indirectly of course.

Sentiment has been growing in and out of Congress for a federal sales tax. Such a tax, to raise a sizeable amount of income, would of necessity be at least 5 percent. A 5 percent tax, it is estimated, would yield less than $10,000,000,000.

Whether a sales tax will be enacted, in the near future depends on international development, but this probably will be the last levy to be inaugurated. The unions are opposed to it, and others fear that such a tax, if enacted, will repeat the history of the income tax and be increased over the years to staggering take of the people's money.

Lenin's Prediction

With world peace in jeopardy, there is a growing tendency on the part of the American people to recall past events that had to do with bringing about the present situation.

Although it was more of a boastful prediction than a warning, Lenin, founder of Russian Communism, declared many years ago that eventually Russia would force the United States to spend itself into bankruptcy.

Billions of dollars are needed for defense against Russian aggression. But those in control give no indication they will move to cut down nonessential spending. With the 1952 election in mind, the administration is still thinking of votes instead of national security. Will Congress continue a course which will make Lenin's prediction come true?

If you are afflicted by a tired feeling you need a new interest, says a medical writer. This will soon be forthcoming in the form of another tax levy.

Diet and Health Some Facts About High Blood Pressure

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Thought high blood pressure has been found in connection with as many as 60 different conditions, its primary cause is still unknown. It may well be that when we learn the full story of this disorder, which today forms our most pressing medical problem, we shall find that it is produced not by one factor, but by many.

Certain cases of high blood pressure are undoubtedly due to kidney disturbances, but beyond that we know little of its cause. As always where the cause of a disease remains unknown, treatment is often unsatisfactory. Nonetheless, with diet, drugs, surgery, and wise adjustment of the patient's mental and emotional outlook, much can be done to bring about improvement.

Our ideas of diet in high blood pressure have changed considerably of late. Years ago, patients with high blood pressure were advised not to use red meats and to curtail the amount of all meats which they consumed. There is no evidence that such treatment is of any value. In fact, the cutting down of the proteins, particularly those from meat, may weaken the patient generally, without doing his high blood pressure any good.

If a person is overweight, he should, of course, reduce. The limitation of salt in the diet does seem to be of value. Otherwise, the patient should eat a well-balanced diet supplying all the necessary food parts. He should be cautioned, however, not to take an excessive amount of food.

Insofar as drugs are concerned, sedatives, such as the barbiturates, are helpful. Drugs which relax or dilate the blood vessels also may be of benefit. Certain drugs, such as tetraethylammonium chloride, block the nerves which, in turn, stop the narrowing of the blood vessels. In occasional cases, such treatment may also be found useful.

As far as surgery is concerned, operations for cutting the nerves to the blood vessels are performed and bring about decreases in the blood pressure for a period of years in some cases. Such treatment is not successful in all patients, and a thorough study is needed in every instance before operation is carried out, to determine whether or not there is a possibility of its being of help.

Dr. James H. Hutton of Chicago believes that there may be some relation between high blood pressure and disturbances of the glands of internal secretion. Excessive secretion from the pituitary, located at the base of the brain, is accompanied by high blood pressure. The same is true of excessive secretion from the thyroid gland. Dr. Hutton thinks that X-ray treatments over the pituitary and adrenal glands may result in reduction of blood pressure in many patients.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
M. E. S.: My little daughter, six years of age, has a fast heart beat. Is there anything that can be done for this?

Answer: Rapid heart beat in a child requires a careful investigation. It may be due to rheumatic fever which has affected the heart. On the other hand, the rapid heart beat could come from other causes, such as infections anywhere in the body. The normal heart rate in a child of six is from 100 to 120 beats a minute.

Boys in Foxholes Get News Now

By Hal Boyle

WITH U. S. TROOPS IN Korea, —(AP)—In wartime the men at the front—those who do the most fighting—usually know the least about what is going on.

Hal Boyle

But the men in the foxholes do have a real hunger to know what is happening on the whole front and how soldiers in other sectors are faring. And like everyone else they want fresh news.

Col. John T. Corley of Brooklyn, is one battlefield commander who has taken steps to see that his men are kept informed.

Corley, at 36, is one of the army's most decorated officers. He holds 13 medals for heroism and meritorious service. When he took over command of the Negro 24th regiment he started a daily paper for his troops. He called it the "Eagle Forward."

The little two-page mimeographed newspaper has become one of the most popular publications in Korea. It is crisply breezy as Corley himself—a cheerful, tough-minded young officer.

The first page is devoted to world news of importance, including the latest war developments in Korea. The second page tells the activities of different units within the regiment and the achievements of individual soldiers.

It usually has a chuckle or two. One recent item, for example, noted that one private could keep himself amused for hours in a foxhole as a result of a Christmas gift from his eight-year-old sister. She sent him two all-day suckers.

One of the most popular features, called "The Old Soldiers Aid," was Corley's idea.

It consists of a daily bit of advice on how troops can protect themselves from the weather or the enemy. Lately the "Old Soldier" has been giving stage tips on how to take proper care of the feet.

"It really helps cut down on the number of frostbites," said the editor, Sgt. Milton B. Fulcher, of Brooklyn, a 42-year-old veteran of World War II.

Fulcher and his entire staff—who is Pfc. Cornelius Boykin, 27, of South Arlington, Va.—are proud of the way "Eagle Forward" has helped step up morale.

The paper comes out every day except Sunday, and the two Negro soldiers have never missed an edition.

They collect and write news and then crank it out on a mimeograph machine. The paper has a press run of 600 copies. When the division was on the front the paper was taken up on chow trucks. The men read it and passed copies from foxhole to foxhole.

"A lot of them want us to mail copies to their folks at home, but we just don't have a big enough paper supply," said Boykin.

Their paper has been put out by candlelight, Korean gaslight and flashlight. It has gone to press in bombed out buildings, abandoned factories, in the open fields, in tents and in creek beds.

Its editors sometimes have to melt the frozen ink on the stove to publish, but no difficulty yet has stopped them.

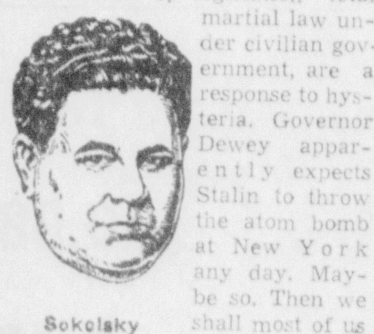

"We were busy cranking out copies six hours before Charlie Chang kicked us out of Pyongyang," said Sergeant Fulcher, smiling. "But we made our deadline."

Why No Hysteria in Russia?

By George Sokolsky

Why is it that there is no hysteria in England or France? Why is there no hysteria in Soviet Russia?

This country is being pumped full of hysteria. Maybe we are all guilty of it because a national mood carries men in its wake. Such proposals as Governor Thomas E. Dewey has made, to establish by legislation total martial law under government, are a response to hysteria.

Sokolsky

But, why are not the French frightened? Why are the British not frightened? They seem to be going along calmly with business-as-usual and politics-as-usual. If we are scared, why are they not scared?

For instance, in this matter of defending Europe, there is talk about some 30 divisions of which the United is to supply 10.

Freight Rate Increase Is Asked by Railroads

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—(AP)—The railroad industry today formally asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for a new general six per cent increase in freight rates.

The hike, if granted, would be the ninth such increase since World War II. The boosts have thus far raised the rail freight rates by about 37 per cent over the 1946 levels.

OSU Students Answer Rotary Questions

Foreign Students Panel Provides Top Interest

The feature of Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Washington Rotary Club at the Country Club was the appearance of the four foreign students from Ohio State University.

With Dr. J. P. Schmidt, rural sociologist of the OSU agricultural extension department, who was accompanied by Mrs. Schmidt, acting as moderator, these students made a very favorable impression on their audience by their answers to questions from their hearers.

The substances of some of their comments is carried in another column of this paper dealing with the various group meetings in this community.

During the Rotary business session Rev. Allan Caley urged Rotarians and their families to attend the one day conference with Dr. Amiya Chakravarty, to be held under the auspices of the Ministerial Association, the Washington High School, the Washington C. H. PTA Council and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

This conference is to be held at the Grace Methodist Church, Monday, January 22, at 7:30 P. M.

Dr. Chakravarty is a native of India, had headed delegations of Indian scholars to various international meetings and is official advisor to the Indian delegation to the United Nations. He comes directly here from UN conferences.

Ellis Miller, new high school student guest, was introduced by Harris Willis. Wendell Braden, outgoing guest, acquitted himself very creditably in thanking Rotarians for the opportunity of attending the past two meetings. He stated he hoped sometime to become a Rotarian.

It was announced by President Himmelspach that the next session of the local club's Rotary assembly would be held at Anderson's Drive-in restaurant Thursday evening, January 18 at 7 o'clock.

The club sang birthday greetings to Joseph Peters, Edward E. Porter and Judge Harry M. Rankin.

Fifty-seven other inmates of the institution will be paroled on the same date.

World War 1 Vet Praises Hadacol

Hadacol Supplies Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron Which His System Lacked

This little space is to be read by those folks who are always wishing they'd feel better. Now, this business of wishing for "this" and wishing for "that" is all right. It sort of makes a person look to the future. But it is a mighty sorry state of affairs when folks keep wishing and wishing they would feel better. That just doesn't get the job done. Take Leo D. Fisher, 901 Charles Street, St. Joseph, Mo., for example. He just didn't wish he would feel better—he did something about it. He took HADACOL, and says he feels just fine for Mr. Fisher found that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mr. Fisher's own statement: "I am a veteran of World War I. I have had stomach distress and was nervous and could not sleep. I had no appetite and could not eat any fried foods. I started taking HADACOL. I have taken 8 small bottles and now I am on my second large bottle. I eat anything. I feel fine and sleep good, thanks to HADACOL. I have recommended HADACOL to many people and they are taking it. I am a booster, for I cannot do without it."

Electric light used to keep little pigs warm during cold nights on Forrest Martin Farm, Centerville Station Road, Centerville, Ohio.

The piggie you save may be a champion!

Electric brooder reduces loss of little pigs as much as 50%

Among the 4 little pigs out of 10 that never grow up, may be a future champion. Each piggie saved represents at weaning time about 240 pounds of feed fed to the sow—which is no small item on farms raising a lot of pork.

Little pigs farrowed early enough for finishing during the best marketing season need protection against chill. If the only warm place in the pen is under the sow there are bound to be casualties when the clumsy mother turns over. Use of an electric brooder reduces the loss of little pigs as much as 50% during the first 5 to 10 days of their lives.

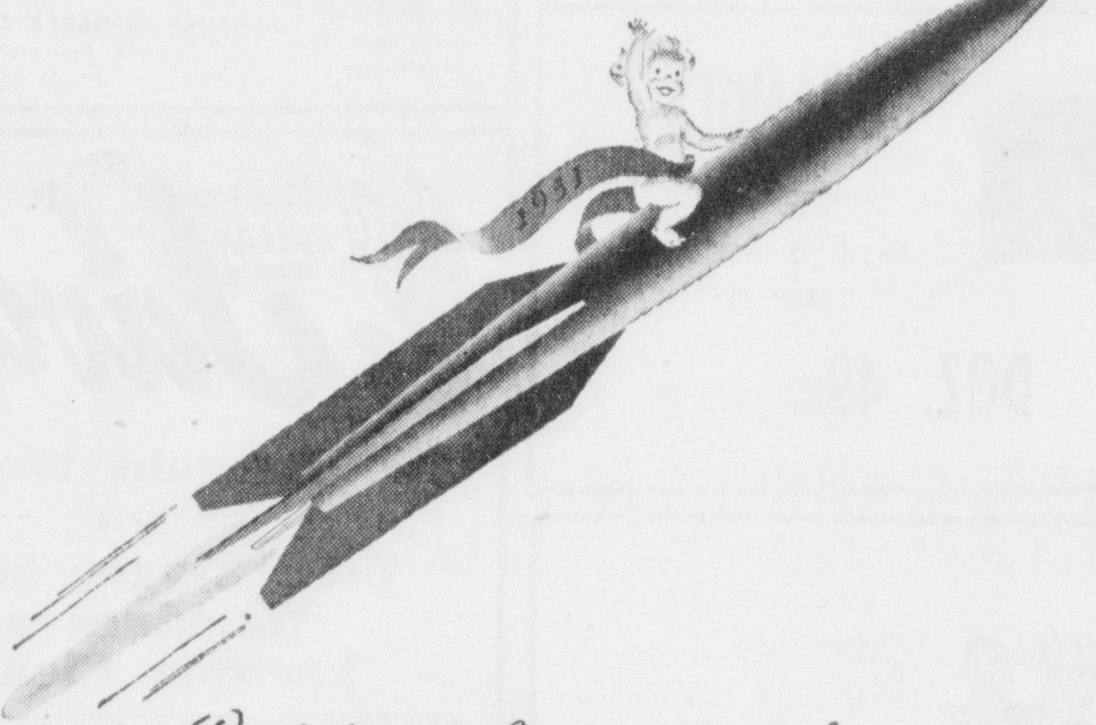

Any farmer can make home-made pig brooders at a cost of from one to five dollars, according to what parts have to be bought. Some use an incandescent lamp of 100 to 150 watts, mounted in an old aluminum basin for a reflector. Other use a 150 watt heat lamp with built-in reflector, or space heaters of 150 to 200 watts. An infra-red heat lamp with thermostat is a good investment at a little higher price.

For practical advice and plans for making pig brooders, see your county agent, your vocational agriculture teacher, or the farm representative of your electric service company.

Junior Basketball Tourney To Be Held Here Next Month

Replies to an invitation to participate in a junior high school basketball tournament here Feb. 3, 7 and 10 today were awaited by the Washington C. H. High School Athletic Association.

Plans for the tournament were worked out by Coach Fred Pierson of the WHS Lion Cubs. It is to be held under the Athletic Association's sponsorship on the WHS floor.

Invitations have gone to "about 40" schools in Fayette, Ross, Clinton, Greene, Pickaway, Madison and Highland Counties, Pierson said.

And, he added, since the tourney has been set up on a 16-team basis, the first 16 schools to return their entries will make up the tournament.

INVITATIONS were sent to both class A and B schools. The four high schools in Fayette County—Jeffersonville, Bloomingsburg, Good Hope and Madison Mills—were included. Pierson explained that there usually is not as much difference between teams in the class A and B schools at the junior high level as there is when they reach varsity status. Besides, he added, he considered the junior high tourney "unusually good" for giving the younger boys experience and a chance to perform before bigger crowds.

The tourney is set up on the single-elimination basis. Eight games have been carded for the opening day, four teams to play in the afternoon and four more at night. On Feb. 7, there will be only two night games. On the last day, Feb. 10, two semi-finals are to be played in the afternoon and the final and consolation at night. Trophies are to be presented to the winner, the runner-up and the consolation team.

DRAWINGS FOR the tournament are to be held at 7 P. M. Jan. 30 at the high school here. Eligibility forms must be in the hands of the tournament manager by that time. All schools have been advised that they should have a representative at the drawings.

Coach Pierson said the eligibility rules, while simple, would be adhered to rigidly. Only bonified seventh and eighth grade students may participate in the tournament. Even pupils carrying a senior (ninth grade or higher) high school subject are ineligible and all boys must have a passing grade in at least 75 percent of their studies. The age limit is 16 years.

Each squad is restricted to 10 players. Time of the quarters has been set at six minutes with two-minute intermissions between the first and second and third and fourth periods. The half-time intermission is to be eight minutes.

ALTHOUGH THIS is the first venture of its kind here, it is not new. A similar tournament was held last year at Greenfield.

Greenfield Beaten Again by Chillicothe

Greenfield's Tigers, one of only three teams that have been able to beat the WHS Lion cagers to date this season, were handed their fourth defeat in 11 games Tuesday night when Chillicothe's basketball team trounced them 66 to 42. Two of those defeats were administered by the Chillicothe boys.

The Tigers appear to be in a rut with the Chillicotheans and 42 seems to be their unlucky number. When they met the first time this season, the score was Chillicothe 57 and Greenfield 42.

The Tigers have been considered "the team to beat" in the SCO League from the start. Although they were beaten by Circleville's Tigers and although Chillicothe and Washington C. H. right now are atop the SCO heap, the Greenfielders are by no means figured out of the race.

The GHS outfit edged the Lions 60 to 57 when they met at Greenfield Jan. 5. Their second meeting, which will be on the WHS floor Feb. 16, could decide the SCO title.

But, basketball is probably the most unpredictable of all sports; it is always shot through with upsets. Comparative scores mean little. So, no team can be counted "in" until the last game is played.

The SCO race this year -- if play to date is any criterion -- is one of the closest in many seasons.

Changes in Offing In Football Rules

GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 17 — The national football rules committee decides today what—if any—changes will be made in the playing code.

The group has discussed rules and possible changes for two days. The vote today winds up the annual meeting.

Yesterday there was considerable discussion on returning the fair catch to the books. The rule was eliminated last year because it had fallen into disuse. But the American College Football Coaches Association requested that it be put back.

It's Such a Cut-throat Business!

Ray Nolting Quits Jobs as Football Coach Because of Pressure To Win at Any Cost

CINCINNATI, Jan. 17 — (AP) — Ray Nolting, who won honors as a football player and coach, has decided to quit what he calls "a cut-throat business."

The former University of Cincinnati star halfback, who later played with the Chicago Bears, says he has a small ulcer now and he blames it on football.

He resigned his job as backfield coach of the Green Bay Packers. His last college coaching job was with UC in 1948.

Nolting said he was tired of worrying about the kids' "love life and their health."

He told a reporter his plans for the future are uncertain. He said, however, that he will not coach again, unless there is a change of policy in the college—and he doesn't look for that.

"College football is to commercialized now," said Nolting.

"There's too much pressure put on the coaches by alumni, adopted and otherwise, demanding winners.

"With competition as it is, coaches must put in a 16-hour day the year around to keep pace. When the season's over they have to scout around lining up players, bidding against other schools in a cut-throat business.

"After they get the players, the coaches have to worry about keeping them in school, their love life and their health. The kids have to spend about nine months either playing, practicing or attending skull sessions. And, as you know, even football can become boring, if you're fed too much of it.

"The public, most of whom don't understand the game and problems of a coach, are exceedingly rough on you."

Nolting has his own ideas on what would be a good coaching position. "It would be at a little school with a student body of about 500, where there was no emphasis placed on winning games," he said.

"There, you could take whatever material is at hand, make football players out of them, build character and arrange a schedule to conform with the caliber of players you have."

"Veteran coaches Clipper Smith, Andy Kerr, Alonzo Stagg, and Adam Walsh are a few who have found such spots after years enduring the high pressure of alumni," added Nolting. "And they'll live a lot longer and enjoy life much better."

Hialeah Park Racing Starts

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 17 — (AP) — Hialeah race course opens its 40-day meeting today with prospects of better racing, bigger crowds and more betting than last year.

The better racing prediction is based on 20 thoroughbreds entered in the six furlong inaugural handicap, to be run in two divisions with a $7,500 purse in each. An opening day crowd of 20,000 is expected.

It will be the first time since 1946 and the second time in its 21-year history that the inaugural was run in two sections.

The opening of Hialeah follows a highly successful 41-day meeting at Tropical Park, which closed yesterday. Betting at Tropical Park totaled $23,230,602 compared with only $17,998,332 last season.

Lions To Play Hillsboro Next

WHS Cagers Tied At Top of SCO

The Washington C. H. Lions are sharpening their claws for their fifth SCO League contest of the season next Friday evening on the Hillsboro Indians' court.

This game will start the second round of the home and home play for the Lion cagers and they will be in there trying hard to keep a foothold on the league lead, which they now share with the Circleville Tigers.

Both teams have won three of their four games so far, and with the Roundtowners playing a non-league game this week end the Lions have a chance to take over the lead—if they win at Hillsboro.

Hillsboro's Indians, who now hold down the third rung of the ladder, just about took the Lions in their first encounter here Dec. 6. The game went into overtime and the Lions won 65 to 63.

THE WHS RESERVES have the top position on their league standing with four wins and no losses and Coach Ronald Quinn hopes to keep them there.

Last weekend, the WHS boys took an overnight trip to the northern part of the state and broke even two games. They were trounced, 86 to 50, by the powerful Ashland Tiger outfit but bounced back the following night and beat the also powerful Galion Tigers, 71 to 69.

At the present time the team standings in the SCO League look something like this:

|------------------|---|---|
| Washington C. H. | 3 | 1 |
| Circleville | 3 | 1 |
| Greenfield | 2 | 1 |
| Hillsboro | 1 | 3 |
| Wilmington | 0 | 3 |

|------------------|---|---|
| Washington C. H. | 4 | 0 |
| Circleville | 3 | 1 |
| Hillsboro | 2 | 2 |
| Wilmington | 0 | 3 |
| Greenfield | 0 | 3 |

Jeff Cagers Edged By South Charleston

Jeffersonville's Tiger cagers lost a high scoring game to South Charleston, 53 to 61, on the Jeff court Tuesday evening.

The first half saw both teams swishing the basket with regularity and the Tigers led at the end of the first quarter, 18 to 17. The visitors pulled into 40-36 lead at halftime.

After intermission the Tigers were cooled by the Charlestonians and they led at the end of the third frame, 51-43. The fourth quarter found both teams evenly matched with ten points each when the final buzzer sounded.

Roger Kinnaird gathered in 19 points for the winning South Charleston team and Ronnie Smith collected 18 counters for the hosts.

The Tigers were without the service of one of their high scorers, Dick Smith, who was injured in a fracas with two spectators after a game last Friday.

The eager hoopster hopes to be back on the floor Friday evening when the Jeff team takes on the county league leading Good Hope Team on the Jeff court, Coach Clyde Helsinger said.

The opening game between the Jeff Reserves and the Charleston Reserves found the Tigers coming out best, 29 to 23. Coe was high pointer for the winners with 13 counters while Litteral was high for the visitors with six points.

Rose Avenue Wins From Eastsiders

Francis Wilson had the range on the basket and his mates kept feeding him the ball—and that told the story of the 26 to 14 victory of the Rose Avenue cagers over the boys from Eastside in the Kid League game at the Armory Tuesday afternoon.

Wilson's six buckets and two free throws were enough to match the Eastsiders' total, but three fielders by McKnight, a pair by Smith and one by Shackelford put the game on ice for the Rose Avenue kids.

Ronnie West set the scoring pace for the Eastsiders with three from the field.

Each team made good only two foul shots, but the Rose Avenue boys got just twice as many field goals.

The Eastsiders went best in the second and third periods; they came within 3 points of leveling off at the end of the first half. But, they were held scoreless in the last period.

The victors took a 5-point lead in the first period and were never headed.
